Board of Trustees

Expectations and Responsibilities

Legal

It is the duty of the Board of Trustees to be legally responsible for this organization.

- Understand & adhere to the policies of the HMF& GAM
- Maintain the confidentially of the HMF & GAM
- Be aware of the HMF & GAM's insurance policies.
- If in an officer position, accept signatory requirements on all legal forms connected to the HMF & GAM.

Ethical

It is the duty of the Board of Trustees to be ethically responsible for this organization.

- Fully committed to carrying out the mission of the HMF & GAM
- Show passion and/or dedication to the vision of the HMF & GAM
- Avoid the appearance of a conflict of interest that could harm the HMF & GAM

Financial

It is the duty of the Board of Trustees to be fiscally responsible for this organization.

- Understand the organization's financial needs & take active part in budgeting
- Support all fundraising needs for the HMF & GAM
- Be available for meetings with donors & sponsors if requested.
- To personally donate to the museum at a level most comfortable to me.

Other

It is the duty of the Board of Trustees to serve this organization through fairness, ethics, and personal integrity.

- Commit to attending at least 10/ 12 board meetings & the annual retreat
- Serve on at least one committee
- Support the GAM's programs through attendance or financial support
- Volunteer where possible